ClearVue appoints European Communications Advisor

Highlights:

- Smart building materials company ClearVue Technologies Limited appoints European Communications Advisor

22 May 2019: Smart building materials company ClearVue Technologies Limited (ASX:CPV) (ClearVue or the Company) a leader in the development of smart building materials, is pleased to announce the appointment of European investor relations advisors in support of its recent listing on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, under WKN code A2PDU9 (ISIN: AU0000003816).

In response to growing interest from European investors, following the launch of the ClearVue technology and products for the European market at Glasstec 2018 in Dusseldorf, Germany 23-26 October 2018, the Company has appointed Deutsche Gesellschaft für Wertpapieranalyse GmbH (DGWA) as its investor relations advisor in Europe.

DGWA provide numerous investor relations services for publicly traded companies, including assisting in disseminating press releases, assisting in increasing investor awareness amongst the retail and institutional investment community, and assisting in overall marketing of the Company. It will provide investor relations services for an initial period of twelve months, which can be extended by a further twelve months upon mutual agreement by the parties, and can be cancelled by either party at the end of each six month period upon thirty days' prior notice.

ClearVue believes its smart building products and technology will prove to be of great interest to European investors, particularly given their longstanding interest in clean technology solutions and solar technology products.

“We have developed globally significant smart building products and we believe European investors, when introduced to ClearVue, will prove to be great supporters of our company.

With the assistance of DGWA we look forward to increasing investor awareness in Europe.”

said ClearVue Executive Chairman, Mr Victor Rosenberg.

About ClearVue Technologies Limited

ClearVue Technologies Limited (ASX: CPV) is an Australian technology company that operates in the Building Integrated Photovoltaic (BPIV) sector which involves the integration of solar technology into glass and building surfaces, to provide renewable energy for building and agricultural applications. ClearVue has developed advanced glass technology that aims to preserve glass transparency to maintain building aesthetics whilst at the same time generating electricity.

Solar PV cells are incorporated around the edges of an Insulated Glass Unit (IGU) used in windows and the lamination interlayer between the glass in the IGU incorporates ClearVue's patented proprietary nano and micro particles, as well as a spectral selective coating on the rear external surface of the IGU.

ClearVue's window technology has application for use in the building and construction and agricultural industries (amongst others).

ClearVue has worked closely with leading experts from the Electron Science Research Institute, Edith Cowan University (ECU) in Perth, Western Australia to develop the technology.
